MEN & WOMEN'S SUMMER DRESS GUIDELINES FOR CHURCH

Even though the weather is getting warmer, it is still not appropriate to have less clothes on in church. Dressing up for church is a tradition that not only shows respect for God but also for the other people in the pews. Keeping your knees and shoulders covered has been and continues to be the dress code for entering most churches (the Vatican is quite strict about it). The idea of dressing up came from the Renaissance era and it was to excuse one's self (or one's body) from public view, so as to focus attention on the things that matter most — such as business, conversation, manners, courtesy, etc. Certainly in church, we do not want to draw attention to ourselves but help the focus return to God, God's Word, or our prayers to God. Please maintain respectful clothing even in warm weather times by refraining from wearing short shorts and sleeveless clothing whenever possible. The beach wear is for the beach! Keep in mind, that no matter how hot you are in the pews, the priest is always wearing more clothing.

FOOD PANTRY DONATIONS

Today we will be gathering food and monetary donations at the entrance of the Our Lady of Mercy Church. Thank you for supporting our local food pantry.

COME TO OUR SOCIAL NIGHT!

The Our Lady of Mercy Women's Guild would like to invite all the ladies of our church to our social night event. We will be meeting at C.J.'s in Parsons at 6:00 PM this Tuesday, July 9th. Hope to see you there!!!

BIBLE STUDY CLASSES

Our next Bible Study class (Session 5) will be held at Our Lady of Mercy Church next Wednesday, July 17th at 6:30 PM. (Session 5) will be held at St. Thomas this Thursday, July 11th at 5:30 PM. Come and join us and learn about the story of salvation!

OLD PHOTOS NEEDED

Any "church activity" related photos that you are willing to let us borrow of St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Veronica's or Our Lady of Mercy Churches would be greatly appreciated for a special project. Please write your name on your photos and drop them off at the Rectory or give them to Fr. Grassi. We will make copies of the pictures and then safely return them to their owners. Thank you!

WHY RAPTURE DOCTRINE IS WRONG AND UNBIBLICAL?

The Catholic teaching: The Catholic belief in the return of Christ for the Final Judgment, (called the Second coming, with His birth in Bethlehem being the First), is summarized in the Nicene Creed: Christ has died, Christ has Risen, Christ will come again to judge the living and the dead. The Catholic Church teaches that, at the end of time, Jesus will return to judge the living and the dead. At this time, everyone who is dead, just and unjust, will have a bodily resurrection and those who are alive, will have their bodies transformed for eternity. Those still in Purgatory will be released, joining the risen and the still-living, transformed just. Then the Last Judgment will take place. The just will live with God, the unjust will be punished to live eternally without God. All these will happen on the last day as a one-stage event. Catholics do not generally use the term Rapture, nor do they believe in a Rapture that will take place some time before the Second Coming, as do many Evangelicals. The Church has certainly condemned the notion of two resurrections from the dead. Those who are still alive in Christ at His return will be transformed "in the twinkling of an eye and caught up in the clouds with the Lord", but that will take place on the Last Day.

The Catechism on end times: The definitive Catholic teaching on the end times is contained in the Catechism of the Catholic Church under the discussion of the article of the Creed, "From thence He will come again to judge the living and the dead." [CCC #668-682]. As the Creed infallibly teaches, the Second Coming is associated with the end of the world and the Last Judgment. Therefore, it is NOT associated with any earlier time - such as the establishment of a "Millennium." The Catholic Church specifically condemns "millenarianism," according to which Jesus will establish a throne in this world and reign here for a thousand years [CCC #676]. She teaches instead that Jesus already reigns in eternity (1 Cor. 15:24-27, Rev. 4 & 5), and that in this world His reign, established as a seed, is found already in the Church [CCC #668-669]. This is the "thousand years," which is the Hebrew expression indicating an indefinite, long period of time - in this case, the time between the First and Second comings. This period of time is called the Era of the Church, or, in other words, the last days in the broadest sense. The Book of Revelation situates this era between the persecutions of the Roman antichrists of the first century and the final unleashing of evil at the end.

Why the Rapture theory is wrong and against Bible teaching:

- 1) New theory without any basis in Church history: It is a new theory created less than 300 years ago (in 1788), without any basis in Church history or Sacred Apostolic Tradition. This doctrine was never taught or published by any one of the Fathers of the Church or even by the founding fathers of the Protestant Reformation Movement.
- 2) A false theory and against Bible teaching: The Bible teaches about only one future "Second Coming" of Jesus, followed by the Last Judgment and the eternal rewarding of the just and punishing of the wicked. Nowhere in scripture is it taught, or remotely indicated, that Jesus will personally and visibly return twice more, as claimed by the rapture believers.
- 3) Distortion of bible teaching: The most ridiculous notion of the pre-tribulation rapture is that the Church (that is, born-again and saved Christians) will avoid the persecution of the Anti-Christ. This is nonsense. Jesus promised us persecution. The Church grows the most and shines the brightest during times of persecution. Beyond that, the notion is simply unbiblical. It is a serious misinterpretation of Sacred Scripture to claim that Christians will be rescued by God in a Rapture that removes them from the earth either before or during a period of earthly tribulation. (Continued next week!)

As we pray the Rosary before our Masses in this month of July, we will pray In reparation for sins, for all those serving in our armed forces, for peace in the Middle East and For the Consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

HOLY COMMUNION: We welcome to the Holy Mass all who share our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. While all are welcome here, we cannot extend to all an invitation to receive Holy Communion. This is not for lack of Christian hospitality. Rather, it is the recognition by the Catholic Church that real divisions of faith and practice do sadly exist among Christians. Practicing Catholics who go to Confession whenever needed are invited to receive Holy Communion. Non-Catholic Christians and those Catholics who should not receive Holy Communion (including those married outside the church and those in need of the sacrament of Penance) are asked to pray for a spiritual communion with the Lord Jesus and for the unity of His Church. Those who are not receiving Holy Communion but who would like to receive a blessing are invited to indicate this desire by crossing their arms across their chests as they approach the priest in the Communion procession.
